Scope

IMMUNOGENETICS publishes original full-length articles, brief communications and reviews on research in the following areas:
immunogenetics of cell interaction immunogenetics of tissue differentiation and development phylogeny of alloantigens and of immune response genetic control of immune response and disease susceptibility genetics and biochemistry of alloantigens

Virchows Archiv Abteilung B · Zellpathologie · Cell Pathology

Virchows Archiv is published in two sections.

Section B is devoted primarily to cell pathology, including related questions of molecular pathology.

Section A deals with morbid anatomy and clinical pathology. Experimental works and electron microscope studies will also be accepted if they help to elucidate problems in human morbid anatomy or clinical pathology. Case histories will be included if they describe new discoveries or offer fundamental insights into problems of morbid anatomy.

For speed of publication this journal appears in single issues, 4 of which normally constitute one volume. Price per volume: DM 160,— plus postage and handling.

It is a fundamental condition that manuscripts submitted should not have been published elsewhere, in this or any other country, and the author must undertake not to publish elsewhere at a later date. With the acceptance of a manuscript for publication, the publishers acquire the sole copyright for all languages and countries, including all rights of photocopying or reproduction by any other method.

Papers which are ready to go to the printers can be published within 4 months of receipt.

75 reprints of each paper will be supplied free of charge; additional copies may be ordered at cost price.

All manuscripts and enquiries may be addressed of the managing editor
